

Committee for the Assessment of Student Learning across the Baccalaureate Experience (CASL-BE)

Mission

The Committee for the Assessment of Student Learning across the Baccalaureate Experience (CASL-BE) strives to inspire a shared vision of student success at NMSU for the mutual benefit of students, faculty, staff, administrators, and the community.

Goals

The Committee for the Assessment of Student Learning across the Baccalaureate Experience

1. Plans, oversees and reports on annual assessment of student learning in the baccalaureate experience
2. Engages the campus community in comprehensive, cooperative assessment of student learning across the undergraduate academic and co-curricular experience
3. Promotes the use of assessment as a means to improve educational experiences for students
4. Continually monitors progress and effectiveness of assessment practices in the student baccalaureate experience

Objectives

It is clear that the goals have been achieved when the campus community

1. Is highly cognizant of and interested in the annual assessment process for the student baccalaureate experience
2. Is engaged and invested in meaningful, integrated and ongoing assessment of student learning across all aspects of a student's higher education experiences*
3. Uses findings from the student baccalaureate experience assessment to guide relevant decision-making regarding use of resources, curriculum, instructional strategies and campus programs
4. Freely engages in discussion and meta-assessment of the student baccalaureate experience assessment process and practices

Includes developing assessment tools and measures, evaluating student artifacts, reflecting on and interpreting findings, making changes (as needed) intended to improve learning based on findings, and re-assessing to determine effectiveness of changes.*
