

Advocates for Scholarly Teaching
Wednesday, September 23, 2015
4 p.m.
Zuhl Library Conference Room, 225
Agenda

Action Item:

D. Smith will find out who has access to the PRN Canvas course
M. Gurrola and T. Cole-Dorn will update dates for PRN and send out an announcement to Ask R. Grant to put announcement on Canvas about PRN
L. Grant to request conference room for November 18, 4-5 pm

1. Welcome

Attendees: M. Downes, L. Grant, E. Reyes, M. Prentice, T. Cole-Dorn, T. Leon, M. Gurrola, E. Arroyos, P. Groves, D. Smith,

Introduction of D. Smith as new Director of Assessment

T. Cole-Dorn nominated, voted in as AST Chair

2. Discussion of goals for 2015-2016

Continued discussion related to "Speed Teaching with the Stars." Look into award winning professors as the "stars."

PRN could continue to be a viable approach to help mentor junior faculty.

Ideas for promoting, expanding, and sharing information on the PRN

- Host Teaching Academy event
- Hook - Will give faculty satisfactory evidence for their annual report
- Banner in Canvas that promotes the PRN would likely reach the target audience
- Marketing campaign to target second year faculty
- Provide a link from Digital Measures showing resources on campus

